Words About Relationships & Relations

Describing Relationships
- inseparable: People who are inseparable have a very close relationship and spend all their time together.
- worship the ground someone walks on: To love and admire someone so much that you think they are perfect.
- dote on: To love someone very much, often so much that you do not notice their faults.
- fall for: To be very attracted to someone and to start to love them.

Level of Closeness
- on the wrong side of someone: If you are on the wrong side of someone, they do not like you.
- acquainted: If two people are acquainted, they know each other, usually not very well.
- have a nodding acquaintance with someone: To know someone well enough to say 'hello' to them, but not know them very well.

Other Definitions
- friendly: If you are friendly with someone, you are their friend.
- long-lost: A long-lost person, especially a relative, is someone who you have not seen for a long time.
- go back: If two people go back a particular period of time, they have known each other for that period of time.
- connected: Used about people who have a social, business, or family relationship.
- arm's-length: Used for describing something such as a business deal in which the different sides avoid having a close relationship with each other.

This infographic is based on words and definitions taken from Macmillan Dictionary © Macmillan Publishers Limited 2015.